"You Can't Fool The Boy" Says Mr. Cameron (Manager of the Boys' Shop)

In the olden days Mr. Salesman outfitted the boy as if he were a "scarecrow" and told mother he would "grow to them." The boy knows style. He talks clothes with Dad. He knows all about the sort of toggery big brother wears. And you can bet your life when it comes to being fitted he is some particular chap.

Having made a study of the boy and his wants, and our policy being that of ever striving to keep abreast of the times, finds us continually in search of toggery ideas that will surely please the boy. One Expert Fitter in Constant Attendance.
